

I support RM-10867. This proposal should be passed, in full. Please note that not only is the amateur radio hobby served well by this proposal, but the public good is also supported by those that would be allowed to help others in emergencies, or assist the military, if needed. This ruling should be passed as soon as possible.